INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good. L. M. TUCKER,

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Friday Evening, Dec. 21, 1866.

Are They Safe?

Mr. Sumner, of the U. S. Senate a short time ago, in conversation with a gentleman from this State, asked the question, "Is it safe to travel in North Carolina?" The reply was, "Yes sir, as safe as it is in Massachusetts." "Well, sir," said Mr. Sumner, "I have very different information from that State. Last night I received letters from Raleigh and Newbern, which represent a most awful state of lawlessness and insecurity there." The North Carolina gentleman assured him, his information was incorrect, and that to his personal knowledge, Raleigh was as quiet and well governed a community as any in the Union. We gathered this in a casual conversation and state it from memory.

It is in this way that North Carolina and the South are constantly misrepresented. Throughout the South, this systematic defamation is carried on, in many cases by natives, and members of Congress are kept in constant excitement by the most false and base slanders of the South, by men who dare not attempt to make good their statments by facts.

There are cases of burglary, theft, horse stealing and murder in this State. But in four-fifths of the cases which occur, they are committed by freedmen, many of whom having been discharged from the army, are lurking about without employment. Perhaps one-fifth of them are committed by lawless white men, who were in the late war in both armies, and who have no means of support. All of these parties are emboldened in their acts by the presence of the Freedmen's Bureau, which the blacks suppose will protect them in any acts of lawlessness committed upon the "rebels." We believe that the presence of the military in the State, though by no means designed to effect that result, is the chief cause why these disorders occur. We feel confident if the military was removed, the State government could effectually suppress them entirely. Yet, after all, the number of these disorders do not equal those occurring in the Northern States.

Our Commissioners.

Gov. Worth, Judge Ruffin and Gov. Swain returned from Washington City last night to this city, having accomplished their mission, entirely to their satisfaction. They speak in high terms of the courtesy and promptness of the President, and his readiness to execute with fidelity his obligations to the entire country.—Their intercourse with the officials of the government and leading members of Congress, was entirely courteous and pleasant, and they return with the hope, mingled with much anxiety, that coming events will not be as direful and destructive to the peace and welfare of the South, as recent developements have led our people to fear.

Let the people be firm to their purpose, to obey the laws, respect all in authority, and reverence the government. Let them avoid all clamor and contention with those who differ with them in political sentiment. Above all, let them study to be industrious and devoted to their material interests, carefully avoiding needless expenditure.

Mr. Holden and the President.

We learn that since Mr. Holden's return from Washington, he was asked if he saw the President while there? His reply was No! Mr. Holden is entitled to credit for his answer.—We have no doubt he spoke the truth. How could he look President Johnson in the face after what he has done? How could he dare to propose to see President Johnson after he had said, according to the New York Times correspondent, that, "they, the Holdenites, "are now discouraged and paralized, because the President would boldly deliver them over to degradation, increased on account of their adherence to the Union, in the dark days of treason and blood." Was there ever a greater perversion of the truth?

A Word to Congress.

The people of North Carolina fear no investigation. We are ready to abide the decisions of truth and justice. We call upon the Congress to send a Committee of its own members of both Houses, to North Carolina, with power to send for persons and papers, to investigate the false charges made by unworthy sons of the State, at Washington and other places. We want Mr. Holden, Mr. Pool, Mr. Harris, Mr. Jenkins, and others, put to the test, on the Holy Evangelists, whereof they affirm of the people of North Carolina. Let us have the investigation.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY AT WELDON—ROBBER CAUGHT.—Some time ago the warehouse of the Wilmington and Weldon R. R., at Weldon, was robbed of goods to the amount of $1,000 to $1,500. The watchman failing to give a good account of himself, was dismissed, and no trace could be found of the theft. An honest man, Mr. James Allan, was appointed watchman. Some time after a proposition was made to him to become a party to a second robbery. In order to catch the thief, he consented, and last Monday night was agreed upon as the time to effect it. Mr. Allan communicated with about twenty citizens of Weldon, who on that night distributed themselves about in the warehouse and awaited the arrival of the theif. He came at the appointed time, accompanied by a freedman. The watchman told him all was right. He went to the window where he intended to make the entrance, but heard some moving and told the watchman he thought there was some one in the warehouse. The watchman affected to recollect that there were two of the hands in, opened the door and told two of the gentlemen to leave. Every thing becoming still again, the thief at once, by the aid of his tools, entered the window and the negro followed, and commenced the plunder. It was not long before the parties inside seized both of them and found the white man to be the Postmaster at Gaston, a Mr. Pattam, a Northern man. They were next day sent to jail at Jackson, Northampton county, N. C. The above facts were communicated to the Petersburg Index.

The question being on the substitute offered by the committee, it was amended, and the substitute, with the report of the committee, was adopted by a vote of 42 to 1. Mr. Harris, of Rutherford, voting in the negative.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The bill to repeal an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to exchange the stock of the State for bonds," was taken up and discussed at considerable length. Messrs. Leach, Wilson and Love urged its passage, and Mr. Berry opposed it. The bill passed by a vote of 34 to 6.

(They having failed to make a crop, asked a loan of $3,000 from the State to relieve her sufferers, giving security for its payment in one and two years.) On motion of Mr. McCorkle, the rules were suspended and the resolution was rejected by a vote of 20 to 18.

Leave of absence was granted to Mr. Williams, Senator from Sampson.

On motion of Mr. Hall, the Senate adjourned until to night 7½ o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

FRIDAY, Dec. 21st, 1866.

The House was called to order at 10½ A. M.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Sundry reports were made from standing committees.

Among these, was a report made by Mr. Waugh, from the committee on Propositions and Grievances, adverse to the bill proposing the establishment of a new county by the name of Vance, to be formed of a portion of Cherokee county.

Mr. Harper introduced a resolution authorizing the Committee on Finance to burn old Coupons and Treasury notes in the Comptroller's office. Adopted.

Mr. Brown introduced a resolution to extend the time for the return of taxes for the county of Lincoln. The rules were suspended and this resolution passed its several readings.

The consideration of the special order; viz: the bill to regulate assignments and to protect creditors, was postponed until the next session.

A resolution for the relief of the people of Stanly county—proposing to loan $8000, to said county from the Public Treasury, passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. McKay introduced a resolution extending the time for the return of State taxes from the county of Cumberland.

This resolution was amended by extending like indulgence to the Sheriffs of Northampton, Onslow, Wayne, Moore and Caswell, and then passed its several readings (In relation to Caswell county. Mr. Bowe stated that the State tax had already been paid in. The indulgence desired for his Sheriff was only as to county taxes.)

A resolution for the relief of the people of Union county—loaning said county $3000, from the State Treasury. Passed its several readings.

Mr. Davis introduced a resolution authorizing the Governor to extend the provisions of the act granting Amnesty and pardon for offences committed during the war. Adopted, and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. Davis, from the Judiciary Committee, submitted the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

"The Judiciary Committee, to which was referred a resolution instructing them to request the member from Henderson, to appear before them and furnish the facts on which he based allegations of the partial administration of justice and of the persecution of Union men, to the end that the persons or authorities guilty of such persecutions may be punished, have discharged the duty devolved on them by the resolution and submit the following report:

Mr. Blythe, the gentlemen referred to in the resolution, authorizes the Committee to say that he meant no reflection upon the Judiciary, or the courts of the State, and that he was misunderstood, if any gentleman supposed that he intended to charge or allege that there was a partial administration of justice in North Carolina, or that Union men were persecuted by the courts. There was a great deal of crimination and recrimination, and in saying that Union men had been persecuted, he merely meant to say that those in favor of the Howard Amendment had been slandered, and abused, and stigmatized as being in favor of Negro Suffrage and Negro Equality."

The committee are well satisfied, from their own knowledge, and from their investigations, that justice is fairly and impartially administered in the Courts of North Carolina, and that no Legislation, such as is contemplated in the resolution, is necessary.

It is due to Mr. Harris, the Senator from Rutherford, to state, that at his request, and with the consent of the Committe, his testimony was withdrawn, and that he disclaimed "any connection with the charges and insinuations contained in one of the papers of this city," against the Judiciary Committee.

Respectfully submitted,
JOS. J. DAVIS,
for the Committee.

An engrossed bill for the support of the Insane Asylum, passed its several readings.

A bill transferring to the University, the Land Scrip donated to North Carolina for the establishment of an Agricultural College, was put on its second reading.

Mr. Davis addressed the House in support of the bill.

Mr. Foard said that the scrip was already in possession of the State, and that all was necessary to secure it, was to sell it. There were bids for it already.

He was not opposed to the University, but was opposed to a diversion of this fund from the objects for which it was originally intended.

Mr. Peebles stated that the scrip was merely an Endowment fund, and could not be touched for the erection of buildings. He urged the passage of the bill.

Messrs. McNair, Kenan, McClammy, Waugh, Long, Hutchison and Morehead advocated the bill.

Messrs. Russ, Boyd, Everett and Foard opposed the bill.

Mr. Foard offered an amendment, providing that the University shall after receiving said donation annually receive, instruct, and board one beneficiary from each county of the State, to be recommended by the several county courts.

This amendment was rejected after discussion, and on motion of Mr. Durham, further consideration of the bill was postponed until next session.

Mr. Whitfield, (who has been detained from his seat by sickness) obtained leave to record his name in favor of the resolution rejecting the Howard Amendment.

A message was received from the Governor reporting the success of the Commissioners to Washington City in procuring the abrogation of the Military order, prohibiting the infliction of corporeal punishment by courts of the State.

Mr. Kenan introduced a resolution of thanks to Gov. Worth and his associate Commissioners.

Mr. Waugh offered a substitute for this resolution, (which was accepted by Mr. Kenan) providing for paying the expenses of the Commission.

Passed its several readings.

A bill to change the jurisdiction of the courts and the rules of pleading thereing, passed its second reading.

The rules were suspended, and the bill was put on its third reading.

The bill was amended, on motion of Mr. Crawford, of Macon, by striking out the words "before the 20th of May 1161" and substituting the "1st of May 1865."

The effect of this amendment is to stay judgment, and execution as to debts contracted during the war.

Mr. Black offered as a substitute for the bill, "a bill to prevent litigation and the ruinous sacrifice of the property of honest debtors.—(This was a Senate bill introduced by Matthews of Stokes.)

Mr. Black addressed the House at length in support of the amendment. The question recurring, it was rejected.

Mr. Long opposed the bill, deeming it unconstitutional and argued that the Legislature has no power to repeal the action of the Convention in the premises.

(Mr. L's remarks will appear hereafter.)

Mr. Waugh replied, defending the bill.

The question recurring, the bill passed its third reading, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Allen, Ashworth, Blair, Blythe, Boyd, Bradsher, Bryson, Chadwick, Clements, Crawford, of Macon, Davidson, Durham, Foard, Galloway, Garrett, Garriss, Godwin, Granberry, Guess, Harper, Hinnant, Holderby, Horton, of Watanga, Horton, of Wilkes, Houston, Jenkins, of Gaston, Jenkins, of Granville, Jones, Jordan, Kelsey, Kenan, Kendall, Latham, of Craven, Lowe, Lyon, Lutterloh, Martin, McGougan, McKay, McRae, Morehead, Morton, Murrill, Neal, Peebles, Richardson, Rogers, Rountree, Russ, Scoggin, Scott, Shelton, Smith, of Guilford, Stone, Sudderth, Trull, Umstead, Vestal, Waugh, Whitfield, Wilson, of Perquimans, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Yancey, Womble—63.

The House concurred in Senate amendments to sundry private resolutions for the relief of Executors, and also passed a Senate resolution relative to the direct tax imposed by Congress for the year 1861. (Providing for testing its constitutionality in divers particulars.)

A message was received from the Senate transmitting a substitute for the resolutions asserting the loyalty of the State, denying alleged persecution of Union men, etc.

The House adopted the substitute, yeas 64, nays 6.

Mr. Davis introduced a resolution authorizing the issue of a writ of election to Warren County, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Judkins.

Resolutions from the Senate to continue unfinished business to the next session; in favor of Sheriff, holding elections for the ratification or rejection of the Constitution; in favor of the Sheriffs of Randolph, Yadkin and Bertie counties. Passed their several readings.

A bill to allow fees to magistratres and increase those of constables in Mecklenburg county. Passed its several readings.

Mr. Holderby introduced a resolution in favor of the relict of the late Thos. I. Judkins, which passed its several readings.

Mr. Durham entered a motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill transferring the Land Scrip to the University had been postponed. He did this, at the request of friends of the bill, though opposed to the bill himself.

The House adjourned until 10½ o'clock to-morrow.

Resolved 3rd. That the President's duty was limited to holding the people in control, until the will of Congress was promulgated.

Resolved, 6th. Among the principles for the new State Governments and the right of suffrage and eligibility to office of all citizens regardless of race or color, are the exclusion until relieved by Congress from suffrage and from offices of trust honor, or profit, whether Federal, State, Territorial or Municipal of office holders under Confederate, or State power, on authority proclaimed by Congress or the Executive, as insurrectionary, whether said office is civil or military. Also all persons who voted for ordinances of secession, or give it aid and comfort.

Resolved, 7th. The Association recommends the immediate call of State Conventions to frame Constitutions, or to institute preliminary establishments analagous to Territorial governments.

The memorial sets forth in six closely printed pages the history of the origin, course and termination of the war, describing in strong terms the past disadvantages and present suffering of this party, and pleading they say, not for ourselves and fellow sufferers only, but for our still bleeding country. The memorial concludes: We ask for early, speedy, sharp and decisive action. And we ask it in the name and in behalf of the millions of devoted friends of the Union, inhabiting the best parts of the continent. THE SENTINEL.

Friday Evening, Dec. 21, 1866.

Tribute to Mr. Judkins.

The following eulogies on Mr. Judkins, by Messrs. Wiggins and Hall, in the Senate, and Messrs. Horton, of Watauga, and Holderby, in the House, were crowded out on yesterday:

Mr. Wiggins said:

Mr. Speaker:—T. L. Judkins, as we have been informed, is no more. He has gone the way of all flesh, he has paid the debt which we all have to pay. I have known him for years—he was beloved by all who knew him—kind, liberal and benevolent. A good husband and a kind father. For a long time he represented the people of Warren—showing that his people had the utmost confidence in his course as their representative, and that he has never betrayed their confidence. But sir, the seat which he occupied in the other House, will never be occupied by him again. He rests now from his labors—peace be to his remains.

Mr. Hall said:

The mournful announcement just made, is another reminder that in all of our actions, both public and private, there is a Supreme Being holding us strictly responsible for all our deeds below. The greater our sphere of usefulness, the greater our responsibility. One who so lately was moving in our midst is now no more. He has been called upon to render his final accounts to his Maker and Judge.—May we all profit by the lesson.

How well our deceased brother was prepared, has been well told by his colleague, the Senator from Warren. One who was possessed of such bright qualities of the heart, and who had passed through the fiery ordeal of a long public life without a blemish on his character, and had attracted to himself the sincere respect and attachment that always attend public and private virtue, must in his last hours feel, that his course in this life has prepared well his way in that final and better world.

Another one of the old land-marks has passed away—another connecting link between the present and the past has been broken. Soon the present generation will be cut off entirely from the bright example and sage advice of those men of the past, whose characters were formed in a sterner and stricter school of public and private virtue than, unfortunately, now exists.

In respect to the memory of the deceased, I now move that the Senate adjourn until 10½ o'clock to-morrow.

The Senate then adjourned.

Mr. Holderby said:

Mr. Speaker: I desire to add my humble testimony to the exalted worth of our deceased friend. My acquaintance with him commenced at this place in the Fall of 1844. He was then in the prime of life, having enjoyed almost uninterrupted health, which he continued to do until the last Spring, when he contracted a severe cold, from which he never recovered.

While he was among the most quiet and unobtrusive members of this body, yet he was certainly among the most useful. His advice to the younger members was always given in good faith, and rarely ever wrong. His record here, sir, will compare favorably with the wisest—and even to the last, he seemed deeply concerned for the welfare of his country. But a day or two since, he expressed a wish to record his vote in favor of a Penitentiary and in opposition to the Howard amendment. But to him all things earthly are now forgotten, and that noble spirit which, so recently, cheered the social circle, is no doubt at peace. He departed at the house of Mr. Ray, in this city, last evening, about half after 9 o'clock, almost without a struggle. He leaves a widow and a few other relatives to mourn his loss, but while he had but few kindred, no one ever had warmer friends, who most heartily condole with his consort in her bereavement.

Mr. Judkins was in the 65th year of his age. His last words were: "And now I lay me down to sleep."

"And thus he sank to rest
With all his country's wishes blest."

Mr. Judkins was a member of no church.—But he was a member of the Masonic Fraternity, whose motto is, that "we should do unto others as we would they should do unto us."—And never did man comply more faithfully with that golden rule than did he, whose loss we now so sincerely mourn.

I second the resolutions, and move that this House do now adjourn till to-morrow morning at 10½ o'clock.

Mr. Horton, of Watauga, said:

Mr. Speaker:—My first acquaintance with the deceased was when I met him here in November 1862, at a time when the storm of war was raging with a fury which had never before had a parallel in the history of our country, but which was afterwards by far surpassed by the increasing fierceness of that memorable struggle, at the end of which he still held the position of a member of this House, which alone is sufficient evidence of the high estimation in which he was held by the people of his county.

Mr Speaker, for one I can say, that during the period of the last four years, having been associated with the deceased, as a member of this House, I have been a close observer of his course; this being, I believe, the eighth session that I have shared with him the labors and responsibilities of this body and I, understandingly say, that his course has invariably been marked by that cool and calm moderation which is characteristic only of an honest heart, and a well balanced mind. He has nobly sustained himself, both in the sunshine of peace and in the troubled nights of war—ever free from the influence of sensational or exciting themes, he pursued a moderate, a conservative course, on all important questions; and towards all political parties, and at all times avoiding extremes which were considered to be dangerous to the body politic. This, Mr. Speaker, is to some extent, and to my own knowledge, the record which he has left to his people, all of whom will, I think sustain me in an opinion honestly entertained, that his heart never knew one beat, that was not in unison with the interest, the honor and glory of his country.

The resolutions were then adopted.

Judges for the County Courts.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—From extensive observation and intercourse with the people of several Counties, I am convinced that it is the general opinion that our present system of County Courts would be greatly improved if they were held by men learned in the law. A great deal of time is now needlessly consumed by causes which would be speedily, justly and satisfactorily disposed of by an experienced and learned presiding officer, in a few minutes.

The criminal docket, at present, consumes most of the week, and civil causes are either hurriedly disposed of or continued, to the great injury of our citizens. The Jury receives no instruction or assistance from the bench, and consequently, often fall into ridiculous errors, which force appeals to the Superior Courts on trivial matters. They, in turn, are becoming overwhelmed with unwieldy business. Special terms are consequently ordered, and jurors and witnesses are compelled to attend Court from day to day, to the great neglect of their business, and injury of the industrial pursuits of the country.

I would not be considered as reflecting on the Justiciary, when I say that our County Courts, at present, are a burlesque on justice, and frequently bring the administration of law into contempt. The Justices, generally, are men of experience, good judgment, and sound sense. They do the best they can, and, if they had studied law, would in many cases, surpass the bar which practices before them; but they know just enough law to confuse them, and their decisions are too often neither law nor common sense.

There is no radical defect in our system of County Courts, for when W. H. Haywood and G. E. Badger presided in Wake County Court, and T. P. Devereux in that of Halifax, business was promptly and properly dispatched, and there were very few appeals from their decisions.

At present there is great difficulty in proving a deed for registration, taking the privy examination of a married woman, sueing out an injunction, sequestration &c., which would be obviated if we had a judge in each County. For the convenience of the people the Judge should be compelled to live in the County. To secure impartiality and fearlessness in the discharge of his duty, he should hold his office during good behavior. The "right man in the right place" would do a great deal of good, and the County Courts would soon be as much respected as they are now derided.

But can we afford the expense, for our people are poor, and times are hard? I answer, that a salary of, say $600 per year, would secure the services of a competent lawyer, and the expense would be cheerfully borne by the people when they saw the beneficial results and experienced the relief this measure would afford.

In addition to this it would be a kind of normal school for the Superior and Supreme bench. I do not propose to extend the jurisdiction of the County Courts, though perhaps that might be done with advantage, but I conceive that exclusive and original jurisdiction should be given to them of minor offences, and in civil causes where the amount in suit does not exceed $250, with the right of appeal, as heretofore. This would greatly relieve the pressure on the Superior Courts.

I append the skeleton of a bill which a vast majority of the people of this State would be pleased to have passed immediately.

OLIVER.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE ELECTION OF JUDGES OF THE COUNTY COURTS.

I. It shall be the duty of the Justices of the several counties in this State, at the first session of the County Court, held after the passage of this act, a majority of said Justices being present, to elect by ballot, some man of integrity, ability and learned in the law to act as Judge of the County Court of said county, who shall reside in said county, and hold his office during good behavior. Said Judge shall hold the said Courts at the regular terms thereof, and hear and determine all criminal and civil causes cognizable by said County Courts, and shall be invested with and exercise all the authority and functions of a Justice of the Peace, and a Judge of the Superior Courts. He shall hold his Court until all the business before it is disposed of, or at his discretion, adjourn it for a period not exceeding two months; and for each extra term held by him he shall receive fifty dollars, to be paid by the county on the certificate of the Clerk of the County Court. When a special term of the County Court is ordered it shall be the duty of the Clerk of said Court to give due notice thereof.

II. In case of the failure of the Justices of any county to elect a Judge of the County Courts, it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the County Court to notify the Governor, thereof immediately, who shall proceed to appoint some suitable person to act as Judge for one year, and until his successor is elected and duly qualified.

III. In case of a vacancy in said office by death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the County Court to issue a notice to the Justices of the Peace of said county, to assemble at the Court House of said county and elect a Judge, and in case of their failure so to do, he shall immediately inform the Governor, thereof, who shall appoint a Judge as herein before provided.

IV. In case of the inability or failure of the Judge to hold the County Court, the Clerk shall issue a notice to five Justices, Senior by appointment, who shall hold the Court, or designate five Justices of said county to hold it until the Judge shall attend and perform said duty.

V. Said Judges shall receive an annual compensation of six hundred dollars, payable quarterly by said counties, on the certificate of the Clerk of the County Court.

VI. Said Judges, for the neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, shall be liable to indictment, by presentment of a Grand Jury, in the Superior Court of said county; and on conviction to be fined, not exceeding five hundred dollars, or dismissed from office, at the discretion of the presiding Judge of said Superior Court.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

VALUABLE RESIDENCE FOR SALE

In Warren County.

BY virtue of a decree of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Warren County at November Term 1866, I shall offer for sale on the premises on Saturday 29th December 1866, upon a credit of six months, to the highest bidder. The tract of land on which Jackson Pinnell resided at the time of his death, lying and being in the County of Warren, five miles from Warrenton, on the Louisburg road, containing by a recent survey two hundred and forty-three acres, adjoining the lands of John Watson, John Jones and others. The improvements are a two story dwelling with seven rooms and a passage, good out houses, with rock chimneys, good meat house, stables, granery and two large tobacco barns sheded, a first rate apple orchard containing about two thousand young and bearing trees of the most choice kinds, a well of water, also a tanyard with a dwelling attached.

This is one of the most desirable places in the county for a residence, being handsomely improved, in a healthy part of the country and good neighborhood There is a sufficent quantity of wooded land on the tracts to keep up the plantation and of good quality.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctor and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is sole general agent for the United States, and the sole devisee thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMELTER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
119 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Cedrick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a healthy one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude
J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PISCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.
